The screenshot shows the Google Translate web interface. At the top, the Google Translate logo is on the left, and a grid icon and a purple circle with the number '0' are on the right. Below the logo, there are two tabs: 'Text' (selected) and 'Documents'. The language selection bar shows 'DETECT LANGUAGE' on the left, followed by 'CZECH' (underlined), a double-headed arrow, 'ENGLISH' (underlined), 'GERMAN', and 'SPAN' (with a dropdown arrow). The main translation area is split into two columns. The left column contains the Czech text: 'Máma mele maso.', 'Maso mele máma?', and 'Maso máma mele?'. The right column contains the English translation: 'Mum is mincing meat.', 'Meat grinds mom?', and 'Meat mom grinds?'. There is a close button (X) between the columns and a star icon on the right side of the English text.
